GLOBAL PRAYER & FASTING WITH PASTOR CHRIS - FEBRUARY 2026 EDITION DAY 1 (Your Loveworld Specials Season 12 Phase 1 Day 1)

24th February 2026, Tuesday

Pastor Chris Oyakhilome

Father, in the name of the Lord Jesus, thank you for your love, for your grace, for your kindness. Thank you for your presence with us. Thank you for the ministry of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Thank you for your amazing grace and the work of your righteousness in us. Thank you for the blessedness of hope in Christ. Thank you. and we can pray and be heard. Thank you. You are glorified in us. Your name is exalted in us and through us. Thank you Lord. Glory to God.

I want to welcome you to today's program. Remember we have the global fasting and praying program for this month of February. And along with it this time is the first phase of season 12, Your Loveword specials, which means that the program will be a little different from either one of them. beginning today when we have another session tomorrow and the day following.

Remember the words of Jesus when he said that men ought always to pray and not to faint, not to give up or give in. Meaning he wanted us to know that anything is possible, no matter what happens, we can make a difference. So from tonight, we're going to make changes around the world through prayer. And by the way, remember it's fasting and praying and we've been doing that whole day actually.

So this is the concluding part of the first day's fasting and praying. So just in case if you didn't join us earlier from tonight you should be a part of it. So at this moment, the first thing I want us to do is to pray. Just set your heart on the Lord and pray. Pray in the spirit. Talk to the Lord from your heart. You can begin by thanking him. Often there are people who don't know what to say to God in prayer. Well, you can thank him. So much to thank him for even for your life. Thank him that he put it in your heart to know him, to recognize him. That's a blessing from God.

Thank you Lord.I want us to read the 18th Psalm. And you're going to read it like it's a psalm of David and he addresses the Lord and speaks of him in this beautiful psalm 50 verses and We're going to go through every one of them. And some of them are prophetic of the Messiah. And so when you get there, you would notice and all that's been fulfilled really. Thank God. But we're reading and observe carefully the wonderful things that he says that concern you and him and the things that he says about the enemies of God as well. So read it with your heart on it meditatively. So let's go. We're reading from the King James version from verse one.

1 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,) I will love thee, O LORD, my strength. [2] The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. [3] I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies. [4] The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid. [5] The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me. [6] In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears. [7] Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth. [8] There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it. [9] He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet. [10] And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind. [11] He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies. [12] At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire. [13] The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire. [14] Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them. [15] Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. [16] He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters. [17] He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me. [18] They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay. [19] He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me. [20] The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. [21] For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. [22] For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me. [23] I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity. [24] Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight. [25] With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright; [26] With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward. [27] For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks. [28] For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness. [29] For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall. [30] As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him. [31] For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God? [32] It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. [33] He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. [34] He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms. [35] Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great. [36] Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip. [37] I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed. [38] I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet. [39] For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me. [40] Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me. [41] They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not. [42] Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets. [43] Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me. [44] As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me. [45] The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places. [46] The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted. [47] It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me. [48] He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man. [49] Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name. [50] Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

- Glory to God. You know, inside that psalm of beautiful things that concern us, concern the Lord, concern the enemies of God. Everyone knows his place. Praise God. Thank you, Lord. Thank him for those amazing words. Oh, hallelujah. Thank you, Lord. Hallelujah.

And I'm going to have us read Isaiah 55. And this is a prophecy. And I want you to observe the ones that concern you. A wonderful prophecy. So, we're going to read it out.

1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. [2] Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. [3] Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. [4] Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. [5] Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. [6] Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: [7] Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. [8] For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. [9] For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. [10] For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: [11] So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. [12] For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. [13] Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Do you realize that there are blessings in reading the scriptures? The Bible says so. The blessings in just reading the scriptures, reading, I'm not talking about the study. Now the study has its own blessings. There's a lot you learn from studying. But just reading the scriptures. reading the scriptures. Wonderful blessing. So learn to do it. Learn to do it. Just read meditatively. Just read. Just read. Just read. It'll guide you. And a lot of it will be stamped on your heart. And the day will come that you will need it. It will pop out of your spirit. You'll wonder how did I get that? But you see when you were reading it, it was going straight into your heart. Straight into your heart. He told us that. You go to Joshua chapter one. Let's read from verse 7 into verse 8 says,

"Only be thou strong and very courageous that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded thee. Turn not from me to the right hand or to the left that thou mayest prosper whethersoever thou goest. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth. He's not even talking about your heart. He says, don't let it get out of your mouth. That means talk it. *But thou shalt meditate there in day and night that thou mayest observe. Look at that. That thou mayest observe. I*f you meditate on the word, it says it'll cause you to observe to do. It'll make you do. It'll make you do. But thou shalt meditate day there and day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein. For then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

- Good success. Hallelujah. Good success. You know, there are people who complain about others and complain about the opportunities they didn't get from others. They complain about being despised by others because they don't really know the Lord. They don't know his word. And so they can feel sorry for themselves and say, "Well, you know, so and so mistreated me."

When you know the Lord, those things don't go through your mind. No, you don't have a record of the wrongs done to you. Did you know that? Oh, come on. In 1 Corinthians 13, we're going to read from verse 4 and let's read it from the Living Bible.

[4] Love is very patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud, [5] never haughty or selfish or rude. Love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable or touchy. It does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong.

- The Christian heart should not accommodate such things. There's a beauty of the spirit that you have. You never forget who you are. It's one of the ways you know when God is talking to you and when Satan is talking to you.
- For example, if you act on the basis of wrongs done to you, that's the devil. That's not God. See that? Imagine if you reported somebody who hurt you to God.
- Imagine if you reported him to God and you said, Let's say Jesus. Let's not even say God because you know it's not like you're going to say Jesus because his character is given to us in the Bible. Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. You'll find the way he acted. Imagine that you went to Jesus and you said to Jesus, "Master, so and so did me wrong, said this to me, did that to me, and so on and so forth." What do you think Jesus would say to you? Don't worry, I'll deal with him. I don't think so. What do you think Jesus would say? From now on have nothing to do with him. What did Jesus say? The disciples knew.
- That's why Peter said to him, "How many times should my brother offend me and I forgive him until seven times?" And Jesus said, "70 x 7 times. That's 490 times in one day. If you can keep all those wrongs that they've done to you, you must be dirty.

Look at what he says. Observe this. He says, "It is not irritable or touchy. IT DOES NOT HOLD GRUDGES. AND WILL HARDLY EVEN NOTICE WHEN OTHERS do it wrong. There's more.

[6] It is never glad about injustice, but rejoices whenever truth wins out.
[7] If you love someone, you will be loyal to him no matter what the cost. You will always believe in him, always expect the best of him, and always stand your ground in defending him.

It says everything. It covers everything in human life. Everything. If you want to know when God talks to you if it's God or the devil, don't speculate. Otherwise, you go in the wrong direction in life. Don't speculate. Don't say, "I KNOW WHEN GOD TALKS TO ME. AH, WHAT DOES IT sound like? You want to know when it's God? Know the written word. His voice will never be different from what he's written. Look at it. If you love someone, he says, you be loyal to him no matter what the cost. You always believe in him. Always expect the best of him. AND ALWAYS STAND YOUR GROUND IN DEFENDING HIM.

If you live as God's word says, you'll always win. You'll always be successful no matter what. But if you listen to your flesh and be conducted by the voice of your emotions, then you lose out. You know, some people sometimes are very daring. They say, "I don't care if I don't care what I do. God's going to handle me." The Bible says it is a fear. in the same New Testament. It's a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. Be careful. Okay, that was verse seven. Let's take it to eight then we can stop.

[8] All the special gifts and powers from God will someday come to an end, but love goes on forever.

- You see it? So don't be deceived by maybe you got some special gifts. gain is not godliness. You know just because you got some good result doesn't mean you're godly. I'll talk a little bit about godliness in a moment because we've got some things to talk about. This was not part of this. I wasn't going to be sharing this, but the Holy Ghost is bringing this to you in this moment. You got to get it.

See one day we do not have to do all this cause why do we doing them? Why are we doing them now? Because we minister to one another with them. But the day will come when we check out of here. But love will continue. We'll always love. So why don't you let it dominate your life? Now the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost. And it's one of the things we say to pastors and ministers of the gospel leaders cause sometimes even churches are built on anger, dissatisfaction, you know. So dissatisfaction is based on dissatisfaction. All right. Like even in politics where they split and then you have a faction of this party, another faction and so on. So they do the same things in churches. Well, if you build a life on such things, you're building on the wrong foundation. The wrong foundation. That's terrible. That's terrible. It can stand the harsh winds of adversity. You have to be careful. Learn to do what's right. Practice God's word. Do what's right. Glory to God.

So, I said I was going to show you something and I can do that after a session of prayers. So, we'll go into another prayer session now. we're going to pray right now for all nations. And I want you to consider that it's not just nations as nation states that I'm referring to now. I'm referring to nation states of course and then to cities, regions, communities. These are different kinds of nations. And I want you to consider as the spirit of God guides you to pray for them. In different nations, different countries, there are disaffections. Different groups are split from this way and that way and to that way and the other. Sometimes for selfish reasons.

Not all who say that they're trying to help the poor are really there to help the poor. No. Or those who say that like the cancer American Cancer Society for example has been in existence for decades. They haven't helped one cancer patient yet. They were set up to find the cure for cancer, but they have said you can't cure cancer. Why do they exist? And they get billions of dollars every year. They get a lot of money for something they said is not possible. They shouldn't exist. But they're not the only ones. The WHO should not exist. It's one of the craziest organizations in the world. WHO World Health Organization established for population management which means you know what management is on your computer when you see manage files, manage folders, manage whatever. It doesn't mean, you know, make them look nice. No, the chief option there is delete. Number two is cancel. That means go back to where you were before or delete. Mostly delete.

What is delete when it concerns human lives? So they knew what they were saying all the time when they said they were into population management, population deletion. So be careful. Not all that glitters is gold. So we're praying for these nations. Pray for the leaders that God will guide their minds so they can think right. Leaders are important people. Doesn't make them smarter than just because they're leaders doesn't mean they're smarter than the people they lead. They need help and if you don't pray for them, some of the voices may control them and then they do things that they should never do. But through prayer, we can actually supernaturally guide their thinking.

The Bible says the mind of the king is in the hand of the Lord. So he's able to control that through our praying. So let's pray right now. Pray.

- Command peace for the nations. the guidance of God for the leaders.

[Prayer Segment]

I want to read something to you in the Bible. See, in these days, you have to be strong in the word of God. There's no other way. No other way. 1 Timothy 4, and I'm reading to you from verse 7.

But refuse profane and old wives favors and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

- He says to exercise yourself rather unto godliness. It's interesting that the word translated godliness from the Greek Euisa doesn't have the word god in it at all. It's actually more properly called goodliness because Eu is good. But there's no word in the English as goodliness, you see. But that would have been a better rendering. I'm not suggesting it, just pointing it out because in reality there's another word that is more properly translated, godliness.
- You find that in 1 Timothy 2 and verse 10. But which becometh women professing godliness.
    - Now here the word is translated as theosabia. There's where you have god. You see theosabia. So god is there. God is in that word theos with good works. But eusabia doesn't have god in it.

And yet it's translated, but it does refer to godly devotion. See, which means that it's actually dealing with piety. piety in there's more in that it's a generic word for commitment or devotion towards God in all Thanks. When you say that man, when you say that man is a godly man, you're referring to someone who generally is toward God, thinks toward God, acts favorably towards God. Okay. So it's a generic word for that. So he chooses that word here and says

Refuse profane an old wives fables and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

It's like saying the old saints used the term back in Charles G. Finn's days they use the term religion a lot. They would say to be of good religion. By that they actually meant being godly. wasn't the best choice of words but just helping to understand the thought. So that's why I said this is not a great translation of the word of what was meant. So from the very Greek there was miscommunication right from the Greek it shouldn't have been eusabia in the first place but it's a generic word generic term for things about God for example when the Bible says great is the mystery of godliness, again a wrong choice of a Greek word because what is being referred to is the nature of God. See the mystery of the nature of God. So, but when you understand it, remember the originals were not written in Greek. It was all written in Hebrew. And so, translated it into the Greek and from the Greek to the English. And once you get it wrong from the first translation, the rest of it could just be misleading, if not more misleading.

So, here is something interesting when it says to exercise yourself rather unto godliness. meaning that you should exercise yourself in things toward God. So he's dealing here with spirituality in the things of God. Spirituality as per being favorable towards what God wants, what God wants for you, what life God wants you to live, pleasing God. exercise yourself rather. Now let's read the next verse.

for bodily exercise profited little but godliness is profitable unto all things having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come.

Wonderful. Look at it again. For bodily exercise profited little. He doesn't say you you don't get anything from it. You do cause it helps you take care of your body. But then he says, "But godliness, which he told you to exercise yourself unto in the previous verse, is profitable UNTO ALL THINGS, INCLUDING THE ONE FOR YOUR BODY. Having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come.

I want to read it to you from the message translation. Well, it's not a translation. It's the message version. Watch this.

[MSG]

Stay clear of silly stories that get dressed up as religion. Exercise daily in God. No, no spiritual flabiness, please. Workouts in the gymnasium are useful. BUT A DISCIPLINED LIFE IN GOD IS FAR MORE SO, MAKING you fit both today and forever.

- So he says it's good to go to the gym. He says it's useful, but a disciplined life in God is far more so. making you fit both today and forever. So how much attention should you give to spiritual fitness? How much attention should you give? He wants you to give attention to the things of God.

This year is a year of manifestation and God wants you to have an extraordinary life. Doesn't take anything away from you. Your prayer life should be sound. Your evangelical life should be sound. It says, "Exercise yourself unto godliness..." Exercise yourself. Pray when you should pray. Study the word and put it to work. You know, when you study the Bible, if you're not acting it out, you don't learn a lot. He's not just trying to keep it in your memory. He wants it in your daily life. So you become the living word. See, the word of God is lived out through you. That's what God wants. Jesus Christ was the living word and still is. And that's what he wants for you. He calls us epistles of Christ. were living letters. That's amazing. So your everyday life is a testimony of his goodness, of his grace, of his love. I think I like the name of that other Bible, the Living Bible. You see, so you become the living Bible. See, that's your life. And others can literally watch you and learn about God. They can tell who he is and what he's like. Remember what Jesus said, "If you have seen me, you have seen the father." He was the express image of the father. He was the character of the father, the icon of the father. And these are two different things.

And so that's what he wants you to be. He wants you to be the character of Jesus Christ. So your life is the outworking of his person. That's wonderful. So when we say Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today and forever, where is he the same? In you. In you. And by living as he wants us to, we dominate this world with his grace, with his glory, and with his power. With his power, he wants us to keep the world running on his terms. That's important. We have to keep the world running on his terms. And that's my purpose. That's why I share the word of God with you. And that's why I pray with you.

I want you to know what his terms are. I want you to know what his word says. I want you to know how to live beyond the ordinary as he's raised us to be. We're not ordinary people. He didn’t come to die on the cross for us just to make us ordinary people. No, we're not ordinary people. We're bought with a price were different.

So you are the express image of his person, the outshining of his glory. That is wonderful because it brings to mind the words of Jesus in St. John's Gospel 15. Let's read from verse one.

1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. [2] Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. [3] Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. [4] Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. [5] I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing

- The beauty of the vine is found in the branches. So that's why when it says the express image of the father, the effulgence of his glory, the outshining of his glory, you want to see the glory of the vine, it's all in the branches.
- The branches carry the glory of the vine. So Jesus said it right when he says, "I am the vine and you are the branches. You bear my glory."

So what life do you want to live? I made a choice a long time ago to be exactly what God chose me to be, what he called me to be. His word is clear as to what that is. We bear his glory. We bear his life. We bear his name. Wow. Look at that fifth verse one more time. I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me and I are in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit. For without me, you can do nothing. Without me means cut out of me. It means cut out of me. Cut out of me, you can do nothing. If you're cut out, you can't do nothing. That's what he says. Without me, you can do nothing. Away from me you can do nothing. He that abideth in me and I in him the same bringeth forth much fruit.

[6] If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. [7] If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

- If a man abide not in me, he's cast forth as a branch and is withered. and men gather them and cast them into the fire and they have burned.

That's why during the next healing streams from Friday the 13th to Sunday the 15th, we're going to be praying and we'll be praying for the sick around the world. And many, many, many millions are going to be healed by the power of the Holy Ghost in every nation. Look at it now and get ready for it. And many are preparing all over the world for this wonderful outing of the Holy Ghost. It's going to be grand. So get ready for it and help others get ready. Help others prepare for it. Get venues. Inform them. Inform your friends, relatives, co-workers, neighbors, everywhere. It's going to be wonderful. He says, "If you abide in me and my words abide in you, you shall ask what you will and it shall be done unto you. You shall ask what you will." What do you want?

Oh boy, this is far beyond religion. Oh, in which religion? Which religion does the the the deity or messenger of the religion, whoever they are, say, "Ask what you will and it SHALL BE DONE." NOT ONE OF THEM. Not one of them. But Jesus is daring. He didn't say, "If you ask, I'll pray to God to do something about it." Look at it. If he abide in me and my words, MY WORDS ABIDE IN YOU, YOU SHALL ASK WHAT YOU WILL, AND IT shall be done unto you. Think about it. Wow.

So, we're going to be praying and asking for God's blessings on so many around the world. All those who are participating. There's going to be billions of them as we have had before. Billions around the world will be participating on that Friday, Saturday and Sunday all over the world. Glory be to God. I want to show you a few highlights from the previous one.

[HIGHLIGHT OF HEALINGS STREAMS OCTOBER 2025]

[SALVATION PRAYER]

Well, we got a round off right now and look forward to tomorrow's program. Remember, we're fasting and praying again tomorrow and uh we'll come together same time 6 p.m. GMT + 1 and we can have a time of prayer. You know, we just started today and we're building up. So there's more praying tomorrow and then the day after in which I'm going to be leading in some of the prayer sessions. It's going to be great. And the most beautiful part of any prayer meeting is that God answers. So we don't just pray, we come to receive answers. Glory be to God. So, we're going to close now with a song titled Holy Are You, Lord. And while we're at it, you can give an offering. Give an offering to the Lord today.

[OFFERING SEGMENT]

I pray the Lord will bless you immensely and give you a harvest on your giving in Jesus name. Amen.

[LOVEWORLD SINGERS: HOLY ARE YOU LORD]
