Pastor Chris says

"Wisdom is a force. It's the divine insight into the plans and purposes of God. It's understanding spiritual realities. Wisdom can also be defined as the insight of knowledge and the controlling power of insight. Wisdom is insight into reality (truth), foresight into the future. It causes you to understand what others can't see. With wisdom, you can rightly judge what others can't figure out."

THE LIFE AND LIGHT OF GOD

(Carrying the Essence of Eternal Life)

Sunday

TO THE BIBLE - John 1:4-5

"In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not"

LET'S TALK

Think about your heart for a moment. Doctors can show you where it is, how it pumps blood, and even measure its beats per minute. But here's the thing: the heart, though vital, isn't the true source of life; it's just a vessel through which life flows. Scientists can replace a failing heart with a new one, but they still can't explain the real force that makes life happen.

The reality of Christ in you is a profound truth that science struggles to define. Scientists can't locate the essence of life within the human body. They can pinpoint the heart, the brain, and other organs, but the life-force itself remains elusive. Life—the very thing that animates every living being—is undetectable. Now consider this: the life that scientists can't find, the essence they can't locate, the phenomenon they're unable to explain became flesh: "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us…" (John 1:14).

Jesus Christ is eternal life encapsulated in human flesh; this is the greatest miracle to ever occur. Who is Christ? He's the divine essence, eternal life personified, the embodiment of life itself. He said, "...I am the way, the truth, and the life..." (John 14:6). When you have Christ, you have life, the very essence that sustains all creation. Light is another phenomenon that challenges human understanding. It is difficult to describe light without referencing a greater light. In the presence of a stronger light, a lesser light fades into paltriness. For example, a candle light in the bright noon sun has no visible effect. Jesus said, "...I am the light of the world..." (John 8:12).

This is the light that lights every man who comes into the world (John 1:9). When He declared Himself as the light of the world, He wasn't referring to a physical light but to a spiritual illumination that transcends all understanding. He is the source of all light, the essence that gives meaning and purpose to life. To have Christ in you, therefore, means that the very life and light of God dwells in you. It means you carry within you the hope of glory, the power that sustains the universe, and the wisdom that confounds the world.

REVERENT USE OF HIS NAME

(His Name Is Above All)

Monday

TO THE BIBLE - Exodus 20:7 MSG

"No using the name of GOD, your God, in curses or silly banter; GOD won't put up with the irreverant use of his name."

LET'S TALK

Your school principal walks into the classroom. Nobody calls him by his first name; instead, everyone respectfully says, "Good morning, sir" or "Good morning, principal." Why? Because his position commands honour. Now think about the Lord Jesus. After His resurrection, He wasn't just "Jesus" anymore. He became Lord Jesus Christ, exalted above all, seated at the right hand of the Father with supreme authority.

In the Old Testament, the Jews were instructed not to take the name of the Lord in vain. For example, Exodus 20:7 says, "...the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." The Jews understood the greatness of God's Name to such an extent that they avoided pronouncing it altogether. Instead, they substituted it with "Adonai." When scribes, copying the Scriptures, encountered the Name, they would pause, go wash themselves, and then proceed to write it. If the Name appeared multiple times, they would repeat the process for each instance.

This level of reverence came from an awareness of God's greatness and majesty and the awe-inspiring deeds He wrought amongst their forefathers. Contrast this with how casually many Christians use His Name today. People shout His Name while cutting a cake or use it as an exclamation in everyday speech without understanding its power or significance. This casual attitude toward the Name of Jesus reveals a deeper issue: a lack of knowledge of who He truly is. When Jesus met the Samaritan woman at the well, He said, "Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews" (John 4:22).

The Samaritans, being a mixed race with a history of idolatry, lacked a proper understanding of worship and reverence. Sadly, this lack of understanding persists today. You must understand and live in the reality of the Lordship of Jesus. He's not just great; He is greatness. Have this understanding when you worship Him. Address Him correctly. After His resurrection, no one ever directly addressed Him simply as "Jesus." He was addressed as Lord, Lord Jesus, because His resurrection exalted Him to the place of supreme authority. When speaking about Him, we may say "Jesus," but when addressing Him, we must honour Him as Lord.

TO THE BIBLE - 1 Corinthians 9:16

"For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel."

LET'S TALK

Think of a group project in school. Everyone is assigned a role, but sometimes, students slack off, thinking, "Someone else will do it." Now, imagine if you approached the project like it was all up to you; research, presentation, and final delivery. You'd give your best, and the project would succeed. That's how Paul saw the preaching of the Gospel. He didn't think, "Oh, there are many apostles; someone will handle it." No! He declared, "Woe is me if I preach not the Gospel!" (1 Corinthians 9:16). He carried it like a personal assignment from God.

When it comes to the preaching of the Gospel in all the nations of the earth, you'll have to approach it as though it depended on you alone to do it. That was the mentality Paul had and it's worth emulating. When you have such a fire in your spirit, nothing can quench it. You'd say like Paul, "...necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!" Paul recognized the weight of responsibility placed on him and was determined to take the message to the entire world.

Your positioning, thinking and mentality have to be the same. Don't have the idea that "Oh, there are so many Christians, churches and ministries around the world; I hope they're going to do something for the full preaching of the Gospel." Instead, ask yourself, "What am I going to do as an individual?" Paul said, "According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust" (1 Timothy 1:11); he personalized it.

Can God trust you to do the same? If He left the fulfilment of His vision to you, could you be trusted to get it done? This should get you to think differently about soul winning and how you intercede for those who haven't yet known the Lord. If you were the only Christian in your country, state, city, neighbourhood, etc., how would you function? What would you do differently? Would you continue at your current pace or rise to the challenge and do more? Be determined to make a far greater impact with the Gospel in your environment. Don't wait; make the decisions you need to make and act on them quickly. Set your priorities for soul winning and evangelism.

ACCORDING TO YOUR FAITH

(Believe and Receive)

Wednesday

TO THE BIBLE - Mark 9:23

"Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth"

LET'S TALK

A key doesn't look powerful on its own, yet it has the ability to unlock a whole house. In the same way, faith may seem simple, but it unlocks the endless possibilities of God's power. The Bible tells us of two blind men who came to Jesus, crying out, "...Thou son of David, have mercy on us" (Matthew 9:27). Jesus didn't respond to them immediately but waited until they followed Him to the house. Then the Lord asked them, "...Believe ye that I am able to do this?...." They responded, "...Yea, Lord" (Matthew 9:28).

Then, the Bible records, He touched "... their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. And their eyes were opened..." (Matthew 9:29-30). The blind men held their "key" of faith, and when they used it, their eyes were opened. Notice His question to the two blind men: "Believe ye that I am able to do this?" Their healing depended on their belief. Similarly, in Mark 9:22, a man brought his son to Jesus for healing and pleaded, "...If thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us." The Master responded, "...If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth" (Mark 9:23).

The man thought the responsibility was entirely on Jesus, but Jesus showed him it was about his belief. The man replied, "... Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief" (Mark 9:24). Despite this mix of faith and doubt, the Lord had mercy on him and healed his son (Mark 9:25). God is always willing to do anything for you. The requirement is your faith. It's not enough to simply believe; you must act like you believe. Talk like you believe. Think like you believe. If you don't think like you believe, you won't talk like it, and if you don't talk like it, you won't act like it.

God's Word renews your mind and helps you think correctly, enabling you to live in alignment with your belief (Romans 12:2). No matter how significant a project or assignment is, even if you're convinced it's authentic and from God, it won't happen unless you believe it's possible. Without belief, you won't engage in what's required to make it happen; instead, you'll see it as a failed venture or a waste of resources. For example, we're now in the race for the last man, reaching those in our world with the Gospel. We have to continue preaching until the last person is reached with the Gospel. And you know what? That's about to happen! When you believe this, something shifts inside you. You become intentional. You become urgent. You become part of the final push. Hallelujah!

TO THE BIBLE - Joshua 6:10

"And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout."

LET'S TALK

A phone with low battery can't power your apps properly. If you keep talking doubt, it's like draining your battery faster. But staying quiet and charging up with God's Word is like plugging into power. By the time you need to act, you're at 100% and ready to go! When God sent the children of Israel to bring down the walls of Jericho, He gave them the strategy. He said to them, "Go around Jericho every day for seven days."

He also instructed them through Joshua to stay quiet. He didn't want anyone doubting or asking, "Do you think these walls will fall down? They're so thick!" No; He commanded absolute silence. From the time they left their homes until they returned, they were to say nothing for the first six days as they marched round Jericho. On the seventh day, they were to go around the city seven times, and on the seventh lap, the priests were to blow the trumpet, and after that, everyone was to shout!

They did as God instructed, and though they hadn't any equipment to bring down those walls, the walls fell down flat nevertheless. God instructed them to be quiet until the seventh day because He didn't want them speaking unbelief that would nullify their faith. Sometimes, you need to be quiet. If you're struggling to believe what God has said, don't speak doubt. Instead, meditate on the Word, and build your faith.

This is one area where fasting is also very beneficial. Fasting will help you if you're having difficulty believing something God has said to you. When you fast, pray, and study the Word, it'll speed up the process of developing your faith for that situation. Hallelujah!

THE POWER OF TONGUES

(Praying With Your Spirit)

Friday

TO THE BIBLE - Jude 1:20

"But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit"

LET'S TALK

In our opening scripture, we're instructed to pray through the power of the Holy Spirit. But in 1 Corinthians 14:14, Paul explains, "For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful." This refers to praying with your spirit, speaking in tongues, as a means of engaging with God on a deeper, spiritual level. Then in Romans 8:26, we see another dimension of praying in the Spirit: "Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered."

This is not speaking in tongues. It is the Holy Ghost interceding for us with groanings, deep, heartfelt expressions that words can't articulate. Have you experienced moments when words fail, and instead, your spirit is burdened with groanings and deep sighs? These are times when the Holy Ghost takes over, interceding in your behalf. When this happens, continue in prayer until you have a release in your spirit. This kind of prayer is so powerful. It allows the Holy Ghost to address situations beyond your understanding; it's a divine strategy for living an ever-victorious life in Christ.

Additionally, as you pray in tongues, the Bible says you can ask for the gift of interpretation. This doesn't mean translating what you prayed but receiving insight into what you're praying about. However, when the Holy Ghost prays through you in groanings, you may not always know the details unless He reveals them to you. The power and the effect when the Spirit prays through us like that are incontrovertible; we invoke the power and dominion of heaven on earth, manifesting divine realities. This is one of the reasons you should love and enjoy praying.

TO THE BIBLE - Isaiah 32:1

"Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment."

LET'S TALK

Have you ever thought about that little wi-fi router in your home and the fact that it's powered by a large Internet company somewhere far away? Everything it does, every connection, every signal is backed by the authority of that provider. In the same way, though you're physically in this world, you're connected to God's Kingdom. As Christians, though we're in the world, we're not of this world. Our kingdom is heavenly, and we reign and rule from there. No wonder He tells us to set our affection on things above, on heavenly realities (Colossians 3:2). Think from heaven.

Live from heaven. Rule from heaven. Your authority is derived from God's Kingdom, which is superior to all earthly powers. This can be likened to the operation of a country's military base stationed in a foreign land. Even though that military base is physically located outside its home country, it functions as an extension of its government, wielding the full authority and power of its homeland. Every action, directive, and purpose of the base reflects the instructions and vision of its home government.

Likewise, we're ambassadors of Christ, functioning with the power and jurisdiction of our heavenly kingdom. Our presence in this world is a declaration of heaven's rule, as we manifest God's righteousness and judgment everywhere we are. 2 Corinthians 5:20 says, "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God." Walk in the consciousness of your heavenly identity, functioning as an extension of God's Kingdom on earth.

Establish His righteousness and judgment in your sphere of influence. Philippians 3:20 (AMPC) says, "But we are citizens of the state (commonwealth, homeland) which is in heaven...." As citizens of heaven, we extend God's influence and dominion to the nations. The beauty of this divine arrangement is that our identity and operations remain rooted in God's Kingdom. Whatever we bind on earth is bound in heaven, and whatever we loose on earth is loosed in heaven (Matthew 18:18). Blessed be God.

THE FINGERS

Did you know your fingers are some of the most advanced tools ever designed in nature? Each one is a masterpiece of engineering — and surprisingly, none of them can move completely on their own. When you move one finger, the others shift slightly too. That's because the tendons that control them are interconnected like a set of pulleys running through your hand. Here are some amazing facts about the fingers:

1. Your Fingers Don't Have Muscles
Even though they move all day, your fingers have no muscles of their own. The muscles that control them are in your forearm, connected by long tendons that pull like strings on a puppet. That's why if you move one finger, the others often move slightly too — they're all linked!

2. Your Thumb Give You Precision
Humans owe much of their skill to the opposable thumb — the only finger that can touch all the others. This ability gives you precision grip and makes it possible to hold a pen, tie your shoes, or use your phone. It's one of the main reasons humans can create and build things.

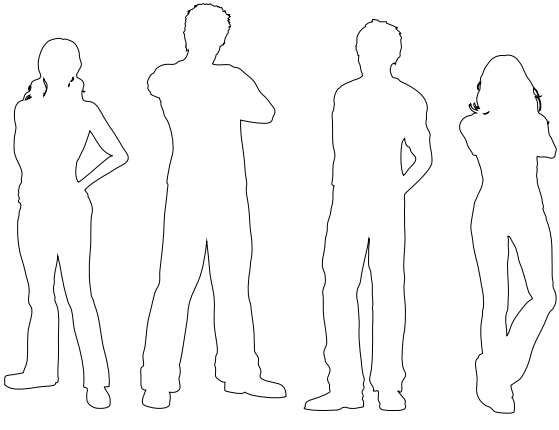

3. Your Fingerprints Are Set Before You're Born
By around the 10th week of pregnancy, the ridges that form your fingerprints are already in place — and they never change for the rest of your life. Not even burns or cuts can permanently erase them. Each person's pattern is completely unique, even among identical twins.

4. Your Body Can Sometimes Regrow Fingertips
If you ever lose just the tip of your finger, your body can sometimes regrow it — including bone and nail — as long as part of the nail bed is still there. It's one of the few examples of natural regeneration in the human body.

5. Your Fingers Reveal Hidden Clues About You
Scientists have found that the length of your ring finger compared to your index finger can show how much of certain hormones (like testosterone and estrogen) you were exposed to before birth. Longer ring fingers often point to higher prenatal testosterone levels — pretty amazing for something you can check just by looking at your hand!

Your fingers may seem small, but they're complex systems supported by 29 joints, 123 ligaments, and 34 muscles in the hand and forearm, and over 17,000 touch receptors. They're not just tools; they're living sensors that connect your brain to the world.

KING OF GLORY

(His Supreme Authority Over Heaven And Earth)

Sunday

TO THE BIBLE - Romans 10:13

"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

LET'S TALK

In our previous study, we saw that our authority as Christians comes from heaven. We rule from heaven! However, the foundation for using this authority is rooted in your faith and your personal relationship with Jesus Christ. The Name of Jesus is the "master key" to your salvation and divine authority. From the very moment you accepted Christ, your confession of His Lordship was the "launch pad" for your life in Him. God's people need to be trained in the understanding of the Lordship of Jesus; He's the Master of our lives. This means He has the "final say" over your words, your thoughts, your choices, and your future. The most beautiful thing about this is that His Lordship isn't about control; it's a Lordship of love.

We're the objects of His great love! We yield to the lordship of His love because, as the Bible says, we love Him because He first loved us (1 John 4:19). This is the real reason we worship Him the way we do. It's why we kneel to Him in adoration—not just because it's "what Christians do," but because we truly recognize Him as our Boss and King. If you don't recognize Him as Lord, then kneeling is just a mere ritual. You kneel because He is your Master, and you bow in reverence to His authority. You might say, "But even though He's my Lord, He's also my best friend." That is 100% true!

However, being a friend of the King doesn't mean you treat Him like a classmate. A true friend of the King honours the King with the highest regard. As a friend of Jesus, your respect for Him should be the "gold standard" for others to follow. You should honour Him even more. He's the great King of glory, Lord over all, and Ruler of heaven and earth. He knows exactly who He is; He's incredibly great, yet He's totally obsessed with you!

He said to His disciples, "If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet" (John 13:14). He showed us that true greatness is found in humility. He didn't need a bio full of titles to prove who He was; His power is just part of who He is. Honour Him with your life. Honour Him in your worship and every single action today.

MAKE SPEAKING IN TONGUES YOUR LIFESTYLE

(The Constant Prescription for All Prayers)

TO THE BIBLE - Ephesians 6:18

"Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints"

LET'S TALK

Praying in the Spirit is the primary way for Christians to pray; it means praying in other tongues. When you pray in tongues, it's your spirit praying, even though your understanding is unfruitful. Thus, the spiritual man prays first with the spirit and then with the understanding also.

Sadly, many reverse this order; they pray predominantly with their understanding and sparingly in tongues. That's not going to work. Recall what we read in our opening scripture; it means there're different kinds or forms of prayer.

However, irrespective or alongside all these various types of prayers, you should pray in the Spirit, that is, pray in other tongues. Think of this like a doctor's prescription that says, "Take these tablets with every meal." Now, breakfast, lunch and dinner are different meals, yet the tablets are a constant addition to each. Similarly, God says, with all types of prayer—be it the prayer of intercession, prayer of faith, prayer of worship, etc.—pray in the Spirit.

Speak in tongues. The Apostle Paul sheds light on this in 1 Corinthians 14:14-15: "For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also…." 1 Corinthians 14:2 says, "For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries."

Make this a priority in your life. Cultivate the habit of praying in tongues every day, and you'll experience extraordinary victories in your life. Your spiritual walk will be transformed and you'll always be steps ahead of trouble before they manifest. Plus that, your health will blossom supernaturally as your physical body is constantly vitalized and rejuvenated by doses of divine currents through praying in the Spirit.

MEDITATING AND ACTING ON THE WORD

(The Recipe for Good Success)

Tuesday

10

TO THE BIBLE - 1 Timothy 4:15

"Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all."

LET'S TALK

In life, there's success, and then there's good success. Good success is God's will for you, and it has a key recipe: meditating on the Word! God said in Joshua 1:8, "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success."

The instruction is clear: keep the Word in your mouth, meditate on it constantly so that you may act on it. This is the divine recipe for good success and prosperity. Notice that the scripture doesn't say God will make your way prosperous; it says you will make your way prosperous as a result of doing the Word—acting on what you meditate upon day and night. The Amplified Classic (AMPC) puts it this way: "This Book of the Law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe and do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall deal wisely and have good success."

The Word of God in your mouth and heart, coupled with consistent action, produces wisdom, prosperity and good success. When I discovered this as a young teenager, it settled everything for me. I knew I was destined for success because I found the principle that produces it. I even declared to my classmates that I was going to be very successful. Why? I could see it in the Word. God already showed me what to do, and I was going to act on it. At such a young age, I held "Success in Life Seminars," teaching these principles to others. I had seen the truth in God's Word and I knew it worked. Even now, the principle remains the same: meditate on the Word; act on it, and good success, not just success, will be the inevitable result. Hallelujah!

PROVING GOD THROUGH FAITH

(Trusting the Father's Love)

Wednesday

11

TO THE BIBLE - Jeremiah 32:27

"Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me."

LET'S TALK

A young lady was born with a severe blood condition. After years of failed treatments and endless reports of "no hope" from doctors, she was overwhelmed. When she shared her story, it was clear she thought more about the size of her problem than the greatness of God. But in just a moment, with a simple declaration, "In the Name of Jesus Christ, you are made whole," everything changed. A couple of weeks later, she did all the medical tests and there was no trace of the sickness in her body anymore.

As a child of God, never find yourself in situations of desperation or lack where you're constrained to beg. Even in prayer, God doesn't want you to beg Him; He has honoured you too much for that. Instead, take your rightful place as His heir. Embrace your position as a child of the Monarch of the universe, honoured, dignified and glorified. The challenge with some folks is that they think about the size of their problems instead of putting their focus on the Lord. What you need is to prove God in your life.

Observe what He says in Malachi 3:10, "...prove me now herewith...." Prove Him and see; He's not intimidated by the greatness of your need. Trust God with your life. Do your part, and He will do His part. He's more willing and enthusiastic for your success than you could ever be for yourself. That's why when you pray, don't plead or act as though He's reluctant to bless you.

Jesus said in Matthew 7:11, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" Simply exercise your faith, and trust in the Lord, for He loves you more than you love yourself, and He's more than able to sustain you in the realm of superabundance. Prove Him in your life.

THE POWER OF COLLECTIVE PRAYER

(Standing Strong as the Body of Christ)

Thursday

12

TO THE BIBLE - Ephesians 6:12

"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places"

LET'S TALK

A few years ago, there was a calculated move by global powers—backed by dark, demonic forces—to take total control over our cities, schools, and even our churches. That was Covid. It was a wild, global crisis where the whole world was basically on "pause." The streets were a ghost town: no cars, no people, and our normal freedom was totally stripped away. These evil forces didn't care about people; they were ready to sacrifice anything to push their own agenda.

But I knew a secret: the power of the Church—the Body of Christ—is on a whole different level than anything they can throw at us. All we had to do was pray and praise God, and that's exactly what we did. We linked up in prayer and took a stand to take back our streets and communities from the forces trying to "gatekeep" our world. And glory to God, we got the win!

Why does this matter to you? When your church or your pastor calls for prayer and fasting, don't scroll past it or ignore the invite. There is so much we can crush when we work together as the Body of Christ! In Acts 4:31, we see how the squad's collective prayer gave them the fire to speak the Word: "And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness."

Check out Acts 12:5-16 for another "epic save." The church was praying hard for Peter while he was locked up in prison. Their prayers moved heaven, and an angel showed up to stage a miraculous jailbreak! Hallelujah! You should be glad every time you get to pray with other Christians. That's when we "flex" the power of the Church. We refuse to let the enemy take what's ours. Instead, we flip the script in our nations and declare total restoration in the Name of Jesus

THE POWER OF YOUR WORDS

(Steering Your Life with Your Tongue)

Friday

13

TO THE BIBLE - Matthew 12:37

"For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned."

LET'S TALK

Tina always said, "I'm terrible at maths. I'll never pass." Each time tests came, fear and failure followed. Her friend Joshua, though not naturally strong in maths, declared daily, "I have the mind of Christ. I understand all subjects." He studied with confidence, and over time his results improved. Just like Tina, many don't realize their value and power; many misuse words. They don't speak correctly. Speaking correctly means speaking in consonance with the Word of God, saying what God has said. Hebrews 13:5-6 says, "...for he hath said...So that we may boldly say...." Words are "things"; they're living; they're powerful; they're creative.

Words shape destinies, define realities, and determine outcomes. If you want to understand why your life is the way it is, review your words; listen to yourself. The words you speak determine your health, your appearance, and even your future. Your thoughts and words shape not just your life but even your physical appearance. That's because words are thoughts clothed in vocabulary, and every person is a reflection of their thoughts.

Therefore, if words are an expression of thoughts, then your words reveal your character. No one can live beyond the character of their words; your words define you. Have you seen people who constantly look worried, even when they're not frowning? Their faces carry the imprint of their thoughts and words. Their health, their emotions, and even their physical features are affected by what they've been saying and thinking. That's because your words are the forces that mould your life.

When you speak words of faith, victory, power, success and divine health, your life will align with those words. Proverbs 15:4 says, "A wholesome tongue is a tree of life…." Proverbs 18:21 declares, "Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof." 1 Peter 3:10 takes it to a climax; it says, "For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile." Speak the right words, for you're what you say. What you say is what you get (Mark 11:23). Praise God!

YOUR NEW IDENTITY

(Stirring Your Spirit Strengthens Your Health Reality)

Saturday

TO THE BIBLE - 2 Corinthians 5:17

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

LET'S TALK

As a child of God, your life is different; you're not an ordinary person. You're not subject to the limitations and corrupting influences of this world. Never accept the verdict from man's limited knowledge stemming from the wisdom of this world with respect to your health. Your body is not subject to the elements of this world and the vagaries of nature. You're in Christ and from Christ, where divinity rules.

Many today have been conditioned to expect certain ailments or health challenges when they get to a certain age in life. They've been told that between certain ages their bodies will begin to slow down, pains will set in, heart problems may arise. These conclusions have been drawn from mere human wisdom and experience, not divine truth. 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

This means no inherited sickness or weakness because you're born of God, inundated with eternal life. Your identity is not in your earthly lineage. It doesn't matter what ran in your biological family— heart problems, diabetes, high blood pressure, etc.—those things have no hold on you! You're a new creation in Christ, born into a new family—the family of God. If sickness tries to attach itself to your body, you say, "In the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, I rebuke this sickness. I remove it from my body!"

Your words have power; use them to establish your divine health. Take charge of your body. Speak in tongues and charge your spirit and then give the Word concerning your health. Your body will respond to the Word of God. You belong to the divine class, full of the life of God! Even now, say, "I refuse to be sick. I live above age-related or environment-related conditions. My blood pressure is normal, my heart is perfect, and all my organs function perfectly. I walk in divine health and strength all my days, in Jesus' Name. Amen."

GOD'S SYSTEM OF PROSPERITY

(Preserved Possessions)

Sunday

15

TO THE BIBLE - 2 Corinthians 9:8

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work"

LET'S TALK

Think about a well-kept garden. When it is watered regularly, protected from pests, and cared for according to instructions, it flourishes beautifully. But when weeds or pests invade, they consume the plants and destroy the harvest. In the same way, God's Word is the protective instruction that shields your "financial garden." When you align with His principles of giving, tithing, and obedience, He not only brings increase but also rebukes the devourer, ensuring your resources aren't wasted on unnecessary losses or repairs.

Recall what we read in our opening scripture. Furthermore, He also made provision to keep the devourer away from you: "...I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts" (Malachi 3:11). The devourer is Satan or whatever he uses to consume or eat away your resources and your finances. Examples are damages, repairs and losses leading to a high cost of maintenance.

The Bible says, "The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it" (Proverbs 10:22). God won't bless you and then have you toil, struggle and spend so much to keep or maintain what He's given you. His idea for your prosperity is addition or multiplication and abundance, not replacements. But you must act on His Word. He instructs you to bring your tithes, offerings and oblations and challenges you to prove Him. He says not only will you receive an abundance, but the devourer will also have no access to what belongs to you (Malachi 3:10–11). In other words, you won't have a car that constantly needs repairs.

You'll suffer no damage or losses requiring costly fixes. Consider yourself so blessed that everything that comes to you works perfectly, lasts long and serves its purpose. Just as you're God's excellent handiwork, fashioned for good works, He has also ordained for your possessions to last, your resources to be preserved, and your finances to be supernaturally sustained. This is your reality in Christ. The key is speaking and doing His Word.

LIVE WITH KINGDOM-CONSCIOUSNESS

(Functioning From Your True Identity In Christ)

TO THE BIBLE - 2 Corinthians 5:7

"For we walk by faith, not by sight."

LET'S TALK

Clara had always battled fear of sickness, failure, and not being enough. She had no safe place; she felt overwhelmed. After an encounter with a Christian, she realised that being born again, she was no longer of this world; she now belonged to God's Kingdom. You must carry this consciousness every day, that you're from above. In John 17:14, the Lord Jesus, referring to His disciples, said, "...they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world..." So, you're in this world, but not of this world.

The Lord Jesus beautifully exemplified this when He referred to Himself as the Son of man who is in heaven, even while physically present on earth: "And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven" (John 3:13 KJV). He lived by the principles of the Kingdom of heaven while dwelling here among men, and He was victorious on every count.

As a Christian, you're to navigate this earthly life guided by the spiritual principles and values of God's Kingdom. This Kingdom-consciousness empowers you to live with a heavenly perspective here on earth. In fact, if you read our opening verse in context, it reveals that you're meant to live from the inside out—from your spirit—and heaven is in your spirit. The Bible says, "...He has also set eternity in the human heart..." (Ecclesiastes 3:11 NIV).

This consciousness will impact everything about your life, including your health. This is important because, oftentimes, there are those who wonder why certain "faithful" and committed Christians suffer terrible calamities. Some even get sick and die sick. Well, you have to understand that health isn't a "reward" for serving God; the Bible doesn't promise that. Instead, the reward of your faithful service is reserved for you in heaven.

When we get there, the rewards for our service will be announced, and we'll return to the new earth to enjoy them. However, here on earth, it's your responsibility to apply Kingdom principles—use the Word of God—to live transcendently and keep your physical body in health. So, keep your focus on the Word; speak it forth always. Be a doer of the Word, and refuse to be moved by sensory perceptions.

THE POWER OF YOUR WORDS

(Speak The Word; Words Are Seeds!)

TO THE BIBLE - Luke 6:45

"A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh."

LET'S TALK

Dami kept declaring, "I walk in divine health," even though the doctor's report said otherwise. Friends thought she was in denial, but Dami knew better. When you speak, things happen. Your words are powerful; they create or destroy. The Bible says death and life are in the power of the tongue (Proverbs 18:21 KJV). This is the reason we emphasize speaking right, affirming God's Word on all occasions.

What you say is what you get. Ponder again what we read in our opening scripture: through the words you speak, you bring forth good or evil, life or death, sickness or health, poverty or wealth. It's up to you. It's about what you say. You may say, "I've been speaking, but nothing has been happening." Who told you nothing has been happening? That's like planting your seeds and digging them out of the ground before they grow. Seeds don't germinate overnight, but once they're planted in the right environment, they most certainly will grow.

Therefore, you have to keep speaking the Word. Like we often say, "Keep saying it; don't stop talking it!" When you affirm the Word, it works. In Isaiah 55:10-11 KJV, the Lord said, "For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

This shows the power, immutability, impregnability and infallibility of the Word of God. Are you aware that your words hold the same power? Remember, you're like Him; you're created in His image and in His likeness. As He is, so are you in this world (1 John 4:17). The Word of God in your mouth is God talking. Quit thinking it's not working. Don't allow Satan to get you into the sense-realm of trying to observe lying vanities.

THE POWER OF A GRATEFUL HEART

(Be a Testifier)

Wednesday

18

TO THE BIBLE - Psalm 105:1

"O give thanks unto the Lord; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people."

LET'S TALK

Chika always had a testimony. From job offers to divine healing, something new came up every week. How is it that Chika is always blessed and always has testimonies? The answer is in Isaiah 12:3-4 KJV; "Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD...."

Did you see that? Their hearts are usually full of praise. What is praise? Praise is the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to the Lord. This is even clearer in the English Standard Version: "And you will say in that day: Give thanks to the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted" (Isaiah 12:4 ESV).

Notice that it says "make known his deeds"; in other words, testify! Grateful people always testify; they always have something to say that God has done for them. They're always bubbling with joy. What kind of person are you? Be sure that you're a testifier. Always share your testimonies of what the Lord has done in your life. You were called, that is, ordained to show forth His praise and declare His mighty works (1 Peter 2:9). Hallelujah!

Always testify of His love, His grace, His faithfulness and loving kindness that you enjoy every day. Be grateful to Him that He causes you to triumph always and in every place through Christ Jesus. Remember, winners are always full of joy and thanksgiving.

THE FIGHT OF FAITH

(Engage in the Good Fight; Victory is Already Yours!)

Thursday

TO THE BIBLE - 1 Timothy 6:12

"Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."

LET'S TALK

As a Christian, you're in a fight. Some people don't like to hear this because they're just not willing to fight. Instead, they hope that things will somehow just fall into place. No! You've got to fight. Why? Because there's an adversary working to ensure that things don't fall into place for you.

Understand that the world is hostile to your faith; it's hostile to the Kingdom of God. Jesus, however, said, "but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world" (John 16:33 NKJV). So, we're not trying to overcome the world; we already did in Christ Jesus and keep it in that position with our faith. The Bible says our faith is the victory that triumphs over the world: "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith" (1 John 5:4 KJV).

Now you can understand why He tells us to fight the good fight of faith. Faith is the victory, so always see with the eyes of faith. See the end from the beginning and stay focused on the Word, knowing that no matter what happens, your victory is guaranteed. It's called the good fight of faith because you always win.

Here are three important things to note as you fight the good fight of faith: refuse to consider sensory perceptions and focus on the Word. Secondly, keep renewing your mind with the Word, and let it be your motivation (Romans 12:2; James 1:25). Then, meditate on the Word to deepen its impact in your life (Joshua 1:8). Hallelujah!

YOU ARE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

(Bring Sight, Clarity, and Healing!)

Friday

20

TO THE BIBLE - John 9:5 KJV

"As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

LET'S TALK

Jesus performed a miracle by turning clay into eyes, having said, "As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." Do you know what this means? Every time Jesus used that expression "I AM", He was reiterating what God said to Moses when he asked, "What is your name?" and God said, "I AM." God was saying to Moses, "I am whatever you need me to be. If you need deliverance, I am your deliverance. If you need salvation, I am your salvation. If you need healing, I am your healing.

Whatever it is you need, I AM! So, when Jesus said, "I AM…," He was saying the same thing God said: "I am what you need." He saw a man who didn't have eyes and said, "I am the light of the world." After saying this, Jesus did something mind-blowing: He spat on the ground, made clay with the spittle, and rubbed it into the man's eyes. Historians tell us the man wasn't just blind; he had no eyeballs but empty sockets.

Remember what the Bible says, "The light of the body is the eye..." (Matthew 6:22, Luke 11:34). So, Jesus was saying, "I am the eyes of the world. Without me, the world can't see." Right away, He proved it and gave the man eyes. Now, here's the most intriguing part: the same Jesus said, "Ye are the light of the world…" (Matthew 5:14). That means, just like Him, you give "eyes"—sight—to the world!

Without you, the world can't see. You give direction, clarity, and vision to the world. Even now, boldly declare, "I am the light of the world!" It means that when you go out and meet someone who is down, you can lift such a person up. Someone can have his eyes restored just because you showed up; someone who was sick can get healed. Hallelujah!

TO THE BIBLE - John 12:23

" But Jesus answered them, saying, "The hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified."

LET'S TALK

Sometimes, when we tell people the Lord has glorified them, they expect to see something outwardly, like a ray of light glowing from their skin. But that's not what the Bible teaches. The glory of God isn't necessarily felt or perceived by the senses. It's something you recognize with your spirit. Look at Jesus. The Bible tells us in John 12 of some Greeks who sought an audience with Him. When He was told that they had come to see Him, He knew this was a sign: It was time for the salvation of the Gentiles.

This also signified that He was about to die. Jesus responded by saying, "...The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit" (John 12:23-24 KJV). When Jesus said, "The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified," the Bible didn't record that any spectacular event transpired. The heavens didn't open up, and there was no earthquake. In the next chapter, while Jesus was sitting with His disciples at Passover, Judas got up after supper and went away hurriedly. Jesus then said, "... Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him" (John 13:31).

The Bible didn't say lights started beaming everywhere because He was glorified. No. The glory was in His submission.

Here's what the Master did: He submitted Himself totally to the will of the Father and declared, "Now is the Son of man glorified." The submission of one's life to the Spirit is where the glory is. The more yielded you are to Him, the more your glory increases. The less yielded you are, the less of God's glory is manifested in your life. So, what would you rather do? Be yielded to Him! Do the Word, walking in the Spirit, and you'll experience greater manifestations of His glory in your life. Hallelujah!

CAPACITY

"Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us" (Ephesians 3:20 KJV).

The word "capacity" comes from the Latin word "capacitas," which means ability to hold, contain, or receive. In Scripture, this idea is often expressed through words like measure, fullness, or ability.

Think about this: every container has a certain capacity—it can only hold a specific amount. Likewise, every Christian has the ability to receive, contain, and express the life and power of God. The more you grow in knowledge, understanding, and faith, the greater your capacity becomes to manifest God's power and fulfill His purpose.

When you were born again, you received the very life and nature of God in your spirit. That means the potential, the capacity, to function like Him is already in you. However, spiritual growth expands your ability to walk in that reality. Through prayer, meditation on the Word, and fellowship with the Spirit, your inner capacity is enlarged—you're able to handle greater responsibilities and manifest more grace.

This is why Paul prayed in Ephesians 3:16–19 that Christians would be "strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man" and "filled with all the fullness of God." As your spirit is strengthened, your capacity to know and express the love, wisdom, and power of God increases.

You can only manifest on the outside the level of capacity you've built on the inside. God's ability in you is limitless, but your manifestation of it depends on how much room you make for Him through the Word and fellowship.

So, enlarge your capacity today—stretch your faith, deepen your understanding. You'll find yourself walking in dimensions of grace and influence far beyond what you ever imagined.

When I was preparing for my Advanced Level examinations, things were really tough at home. My parents had lost their jobs, and I didn't even know how I would afford my exam fees. But I kept reading the TeeVo every day and declaring the Word of God over my situation. I reminded myself that the Lord is my Shepherd, and I shall not want. One day, my school principal called me unexpectedly and told me that someone had already paid my full exam fees anonymously! I was overwhelmed with joy and gratitude to God. When the results came out, I had passed with flying colours—way beyond what I had imagined. Now, I'm studying Computer Science at university, and God continues to supply all my needs supernaturally. I've learned that when you hold on to the Word, you'll never be ashamed. Hallelujah!

WHY YOU BELIEVE

(The Convincing Power of the Holy Spirit)

Sunday

TO THE BIBLE - John 16:8

"And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment."

LET'S TALK

The Lord Jesus made the statement above in one of the last meetings He had with His disciples before He was crucified. During the long teaching, which started in the 13th chapter, He told them He was going away, and the disciples were puzzled. Then, He said, "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive..." (John 14:16-17).

In subsequent verses, He told them who the Comforter is: "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost..." (John 14:26). This was the same person He was referring to in chapter 16 when He said, "And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment" (John 16:8). What did He mean by this statement? The word "reprove" is translated from the Greek word "elegcho", which means "to convict" or "to convince." This is the work of the Holy Spirit.

When Jesus preached, many didn't believe. Even though certain individuals believed and received miracles, the people generally didn't believe. The Bible says, "But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him" (John 12:37). They weren't convicted. Why? Because the Holy Spirit hadn't been poured out on the people. But Jesus said when the Holy Spirit comes, He will convict the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment.

Today, men can be convicted in their hearts—convinced—when they hear the Word of God because the Holy Spirit has been poured out. The reason you're convinced that Jesus is the Son of God, even though you haven't seen Him, is that the Holy Spirit brought that revelation to your Spirit. It wasn't a man that convinced you; the Holy Spirit did that in your heart. You believe because He helped you to believe. That's why when you go out to win souls, it's important to do so by the power of the Holy Spirit. He's the one who convicts the people; He convinces those listening to you and makes them believe. Glory to God!

"Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come."

LET'S TALK

Aiden panicked when his science fair presentation didn't go as planned, and that stress followed him home. He felt sick for weeks. Medicine didn't do a thing—the headache lingered like a dark cloud. One night, he asked the Holy Spirit for help. Every day after that, he received clarity on the specific steps he needed to take to be healed, and as he acted on them, he got his healing. Oftentimes, when people get sick, many aren't aware of the reason for their trouble. They try all kinds of drugs, some of which even cause more problems than they realize. When nothing changes, they begin to wonder, "Why am I going through these difficulties? Why am I feeling so sick? Why is this happening to me?"

Well, the Holy Spirit was sent to guide you into all truth, including the truth about your health. He can help you know the problem and also the solution. Did you know the Holy Spirit is a healer? Yes, He is. The Bible says, "if He lives in you, He will vitalize your physical body." It doesn't matter that you've been diagnosed with some disease; now that He lives in you, there's the guarantee for a change. Glory to God!

Maybe you're a student or you're carrying out research for a project; the Holy Spirit is the Teacher inside you. You need to listen to Him because He knows everything. He's the Spirit of wisdom, knowledge and understanding. He can fill you with the knowledge of God's will, with all wisdom and spiritual understanding concerning anything. Just ask Him. The Holy Spirit has come to help you in all aspects of life, whether in business, in family, or in your finances.

He's come to help you gain the mastery, to make you a wonder. Your greatest asset while you're here in this world is the Holy Spirit. He'll teach you the Word of God and remind you of things you've learned. You can speak with Him more than you do with anyone else. Thank Him for being your ever-present teacher, helper and guide.

YOUR MOST RELIABLE GUIDE

(The Holy Spirit Your Inner Counsellor)

Tuesday

24

TO THE BIBLE - Proverbs 11:14

"Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety."

LET'S TALK

The term "multitude of counsellors" is an interesting one that's misunderstood by many to mean a multiplicity of counsellors. Even some Bible versions translate it this way. The NIV version, for instance, says, "For lack of guidance a nation falls, but victory is won through many advisers." It's actually not about a multiplicity of counsellors; the Hebrew word translated "multitude" also means "greatness", while the word translated counsellors is translated 'counsel' many more times in the 'Authorized version.' Counsellors provide information. A "multitude of counsellors" therefore, means that you're getting sufficient or accurate information to help you decide an appropriate course of action.

Back in those days when this verse was written, they didn't have access to as much information as we have today. They had what they called the "king's advisors." He depended on them for wise counsel. They were the "wise" men: the king's counsellors, such as Ahitophel in the days of King David; his counsel was said to be as though one had heard from God (2 Samuel 16:23).

But today, we have lots of materials that we can study to get sufficient information on a subject that can help us make an informed decision. So, it's about the quality of information, not about the number of people you're calling to counsel you.

However, you have the most dependable Counsellor who can give you the most accurate information you require, and that's the Holy Spirit. The Psalmist said, "I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons" (Psalm 16:7). The Holy Spirit is the one who instructs you in your inward man. He gives you instructions by which He guides your life. Some of these may not even be expressly dealt with in the Scriptures.

For example, you could require information concerning travelling or making some purchases. The Counsellor in you—the Holy Spirit—can provide you with the necessary information to enable you make the right decisions.

DON'T ENVY THE WORLD

(Choosing the Right Company)

Wednesday

25

TO THE BIBLE - Proverbs 24:1 RSV

"Do not be envious of evil men, Nor desire to be with them."

LET'S TALK

Maya was thrilled when her classmates invited her to a party hosted by one of the most popular guys in school. Everyone wanted to be there—loud music, no supervision, and "fun" everywhere. At first, she thought, this is my chance to fit in, but then Psalm 1:1 came to mind: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly..." She realized the Holy Spirit was reminding her of who she truly was: light in a dark world.

Sometimes, you find Christians who envy godless individuals and wish to be in their company. Some get really excited to identify with some "big names." If, for some reason, they get invited to be in the company of certain well-known people, they consider it a big deal. But that's not how God sees it. He doesn't want you to envy Godless men and women.

Remember what He said in Psalm 1:1, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful." You're blessed for not hanging out with the wicked who despise the way of the Lord and the life of the Kingdom. Don't envy or seek to please them. Even if they're rich and influential, don't be enticed by their wealth. I came across our opening verse when I was still very young, and it gave me good instruction about human relationships: what's good for me and what's not good for me.

So, right from a very young age, I had never been inspired by people who weren't living for Christ, irrespective of who they were or what they had. The only person you should want to please is the Lord Jesus. That's important because those who truly love Jesus Christ will be pleased with the things you do. But if those who don't love Jesus are pleased with the things you do, then there's a problem, and you should be concerned. In Galatians 1:10 CEV, Paul said, "I am not trying to please people. I want to please God. Do you think I am trying to please people? If I were doing that, I would not be a servant of Christ."

GOD'S PLAN FOR REDEMPTION

(Restoration Through Christ's Obedience)

Thursday

26

TO THE BIBLE - Romans 5:19

"For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous."

LET'S TALK

When Adam was created, he existed in innocence, knowing only good because everything God created was good (Genesis 1:31). God entrusted Adam with authority over His creation, effectively making him the steward of this world. Along with this authority, God provided Adam with specific instructions: not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, which was in the midst of the garden.

God clearly warned Adam of the consequences of eating of the tree: "...for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die" (Genesis 2:17). Adam, nonetheless, disobeyed God and ate of the forbidden tree. This act of disobedience constituted treason against God, and as a result, Adam forfeited his authority to Satan, who then became the god of this world. But God, in His infinite mercy and wisdom, had a plan for redemption.

He sent another Adam—the second and last Adam—Jesus Christ: "...The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven" (1 Corinthians 15:45 & 47). Recall what we read in our opening scripture: the Lord Jesus Christ, through His perfect obedience and sacrificial death on the cross, restored the broken relationship between God and humanity.

Jesus' obedience countered Adam's disobedience, offering justification and eternal life to all who believe in Him. Therefore, through Jesus Christ, God's plan for redemption and righteousness was fulfilled. No wonder He declared in John 14:6, "I am The Way, The Truth, and The Life: no man comes to the Father, but by me." He is the eternal salvation. Hallelujah!

REACHING THE WORLD WITH GOD'S WORD

(The Mission of Evangelism Through Languages)

Friday

27

TO THE BIBLE - Psalm 68:11

"The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it."

LET'S TALK

With so many English Bible versions available today, it's easy for many to erroneously believe that the Bible was originally given in the English language. However, it was the translators who performed this crucial work, and the Holy Spirit continues to guide them even today to make the Bible and other Christian materials accessible to many more in their native languages.

Think about the fact that the sacred writings of the Scriptures were written in Hebrew, Greek, and Aramaic. But it took dedicated individuals who loved the Lord and desired to spread His message to the entire world to make it available in various languages as we have today. This mission continues through the work of modern-day missionaries and evangelists who travel to distant lands, much like those early translators. They go into remote and often challenging environments to find those who have not yet heard the Gospel, and they bring it to them in the language they best understand.

The Lord Jesus instructed us to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature (Mark 16:15). He sent us to find the lost, to seek them out in the byways and highways. This directive is clear in the Scriptures, and it drives the mission of Christians today. We carry on the vision that He gave us. This vision is about actively reaching out to those who need to hear the message of salvation, and this involves going beyond our comfort zones, reaching out to speakers of all languages, thus ensuring that everyone has the opportunity to hear and respond to the Gospel.

The work is far from over, and the vision of reaching every person with the Gospel remains as vital as ever. That's why we're grateful to the Lord to have those who are working with us in various nations to make it possible for this devotional to become accessible in all known languages and dialects of the world, and as a result, reaching the ends of the earth before the Lord's return.

GOD'S GREATEST TREASURE

(Every Person Matters to God)

Saturday

28

TO THE BIBLE - Matthew 18:11

" For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost."

LET'S TALK

The most important thing to God is human souls. It's the reason Jesus came and gave His life. The Bible says, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16). He didn't come for the redemption of the mountains, hills and beautiful vegetation of the world. These creations, while majestic and valuable to God, were not the focus of His sacrificial mission.

He came to save human beings—men, women, boys and girls! His life, death, and resurrection were all centred on the salvation of mankind. This act of love underscores the immense value God places on each person. We must have that in our hearts and live always with the consciousness that every human being is important to God. If you live with this understanding, it'll shape your interactions, decisions, and priorities.

It'll drive you to live purposefully, knowing that according to the Scriptures, there's a definite number of souls that must be won to the Lord before the Rapture of the Church. Therefore, evangelism becomes your heartbeat and lifestyle. Remain passionate and fervent in sharing the Gospel with others. Put your time, energy and resources into it. Recognize the intrinsic value of every soul and be determined to see them fulfil God's destiny for them.

Pray earnestly for the salvation of souls around the world. Remember, the Bible says, "God is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance" (2 Peter 3:9). So, in addition to fervently and radically preaching the Gospel, intercede for those who haven't yet known the Lord that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ will shine unto them for their salvation, prevailing over darkness, idolatry and deception. Hallelujah!

QUIZ

1. What mentality did Paul have toward preaching the Gospel that Christians are encouraged to emulate?
A. He believed the work should be shared equally among all Christians.
B. He prioritized preaching only when others were unavailable.
C. He felt the responsibility belonged mainly to church leaders and apostles.
D. He carried the preaching of the Gospel as a personal assignment, as though it depended on him alone.

Prayer of Salvation

We trust you've been blessed by this devotional. We invite you to make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life by praying thus:

"O Lord God, I believe with all my heart in Jesus Christ, Son of the living God. I believe He died for me and God raised Him from the dead. I believe He's alive today. I confess with my mouth that Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life from this day. Through Him and in His Name, I have eternal life; I'm born again. Thank you, Lord, for saving my soul! I'm now a child of God. Hallelujah!"

Congratulations! You're now a child of God. We have a special gift for you titled "Now That You Are Born Again". Please scan this QR code and use the promo code 4763 to unlock and download your gift.
